

Join Us for Conference Workshops

Your Association Officers have planned informative and instructional workshops and break-out sessions at Mid-Winter Conference in Yakima March 18-21st. Make your plans to attend now!

Saturday Morning, 9:15 AM

Fraternal Fund Raising

With Chuck Kidd

Plenty of ideas and suggestions here on how to raise funds through a variety of ways ... from special events to raffles and auctions. How to do them, how to structure them and what works best. Ladies welcome.

General Laws Interpretation

Lodges vs Social Quarters

With Jack Mahoney

Join our resident trainer and general law interpreter to learn what you can do, what you can't do and how to make the rules and regulations work for your Lodge.

The Art of Communication

With Norm Dean and Carole Swan

Norm will preview the new Lodge Website program from Moose International available to all Lodges and show you how to set it up and run it properly. Carole and Norm will help you understand the ins and outs and uses of media, internet and print communication tools. Ladies welcome.

Saturday Afternoon, 2:00 PM

Officers' Training

With Fred McHenry and Jack Mahoney

First half of the official officer training classes that are required by Moose International. You can attend this class and meet your requirements. Second half of the class after Breakfast on Sunday morning.

Moose Legion Educational Conference

With Mike Ullock

This is the required training class for Moose Legion Officers and will serve to meet your requirements. First half of the class today, second half after Breakfast on Sunday.

Resume and Report Writing

With Paul Curtis and Carole Swan

Wondering how to write those Bright Star Resumes that win the awards? Join Paul and Carole for this session to give you some pointers on how and what to write. They'll also give pointers on how to write reports that'll get noticed. Ladies welcome.
